

What makes our country great is that we all have many freedoms.

And unfortunately with that freedom comes the possibility of someone abusing them.

Just because someone abuses these freedoms doesn't mean that the rest of us are not worthy of these freedoms anymore.

Recently here in Connecticut we had a monster commit a crime that took the lives of 27 innocent people. The fact that he was able to shoot these small beautiful children defies comprehension on every level.

And I know that I could never pretend to know the unbearable heart break that these families are going through, the fact remains the person behind the gun is entirely to blame.

He broke a total of 41 laws. What makes you believe he wouldn't have broke one more.

As you can clearly see your 1st assault weapon ban in 1993 did nothing to protect the children in Newtown. It was nothing more than feel good legislation. Just like we told you.

You were wrong.
Dead wrong.

You now have undisputed proof that gun legislation doesn't make up any safer.

Now is the time for you to learn from your mistakes. Do the right thing. This new legislation will do nothing to stop the next tragedy.

If you do not listen, the blame of the next tragedy will be entirely placed on you. You had a second chance and you blew it.

I can understand you making a mistake.

But if you make the same stupid mistake twice and another innocent life is lost, that will be your own fault.

Here in Connecticut we are sick and tired of our legislatures chipping away at our 2nd amendment rights to make themselves feel like they did something.

We live in the best country because we have freedoms granted by our creator and the constitution.

My right to keep and bear arms is non negotiable

If you don't believe in the constitution and the 2nd amendment of our country,
